I choose to WAIVE the Medical Coverage for this plan year and understand/agree to the following:
 You may decline coverage offered by your employer, this is called a waiver of coverage. If you waive coverage for yourself, you may not cover dependents under the Employer's plans.

Note that after 2013, if you decline coverage considered affordable and minimum essential under the Affordable Care Act (ACA), you will not qualify for government credits and subsidies to purchase individual health insurance on the Marketplace. I understand that my employer's plan meets both requirements.
 The decision to waive coverage has consequences for you. For Example:

- Unless you sign a waiver stating that you are covered under another plan, such as a spouse's plan, Medicaid, or Medicare, you cannot enroll in the Employer's health plan until the next open enrollment. However, if you are covered under another plan, but that coverage is lost, you can enroll in your Employer's health plan immediately. You must request to enroll in your Employer's plan within 30 days of losing the other coverage.
- If you gain a new dependent through birth adoption or marriage, you may enroll yourself, the new dependent, and the entire family at that time, but you must do so within 30 days of gaining the new dependent. If you miss the 30 day enrollment deadline, you must wait until open enrollment.

I acknowledge that my employer has offered me affordable minimum essential coverage, as defined under the ACA for the period outlined in this election form. I have read the above and I understand the consequences of my waiver of coverage.

I am declining coverage for the following reason(s): (check all that apply)

Spouse/Domestic Partner's Employer Plan     
  COBRA/State Continuation     
  Individual Coverage (Non-Group Plan)
 Medicare or other Government Plan     
  I prefer not to have coverage     
  Other (please explain):

I authorize the applicable employee rates to be deducted through payroll for the elected coverages. And I realize that my choice will remain unchanged for the entire policy year unless I experience a qualifying event.

Irrevocable Beneficiary:  Yes  No

Note: If you select irrevocable beneficiary, you may not change the beneficiary without the consent of the irrevocable beneficiary. An irrevocable beneficiary has a vested interest in the proceeds of the contract; therefore, the contract holder cannot exercise certain rights without the permission of the irrevocable beneficiary.

If two or more primary beneficiaries are named, and you do not list benefit percentages, proceeds will be paid in equal shares to the named primary beneficiaries who survive you. If no primary beneficiary survives you, proceeds will be paid to the contingent beneficiary(ies). If you list benefit percentages, the total must equal 100%. SEE BELOW FOR DETAILS.

Important Note for Married Employees: If you reside in AZ, CA, ID, LA, NV, NM, TX, WA or WI, you may name someone other than your spouse as primary beneficiary. However, payment of benefits may be delayed or disputed unless your spouse consents to waive his or her rights to any community property interest in the benefits. We have provided below a "Spousal Consent for Community Property States" for your spouse's signature. PRINCIPAL will not be liable for damages due to any delay or dispute in payment of benefits if you choose not to obtain your spouse's signature.

Spousal Consent for Community Property States: I hereby consent to the Primary Beneficiary designation by my spouse. This consent supersedes any prior spousal consent I may have given under this plan.
